THE ROLE

Midday supervisors work under the general direction of the School's Leadership Team to help supervise the children during the lunchtime break period and assist with the dining hall duties. This can involve helping pupils with trays and cutlery (but not serving food) and supervising them in the dining hall or play areas.

Pupils are expected to clear their trays and to place cutlery, tray, and any waste food in the appropriate containers in the dining hall under the supervision of a Mid-day Supervisor. In the play areas it is the Supervisors' job to ensure that children play safely and to deal with any minor accidents or disagreements which might occur. (Other staff are always available within the school to assist if necessary.) The Supervisor is also required to record in the school's accident book any incidents which may occur and to report them to the relevant member of the teaching staff.

The following list of responsibilities and duties are not exhaustive.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILTIIES

- Supervise conduct of pupils, ensuring safe and orderly conduct within and outside the premises.
- Promote and ensure school rules regarding games allowed are met and that health and safety procedures are maintained.
- Help pupils in the dining area or play/other areas who may require assistance.
- Setting up the lunch hall and cleaning after lunch.
- Deal with minor incidents and where appropriate, refer serious incidents to the Headteacher/ Assistant Headteacher or nominated supervisor.
- Undertake first aid as needed, following health and safety guidelines. Undertake training as appropriate, e.g. basic first aid.
- Clean up spillages or debris around the dining/play areas to ensure the maintenance of good order, discipline, and safety.
- Undertake direct supervision of pupils in designated areas.
- Assist with daily decisions on areas for pupil use, e.g. wet lunchtimes.
- Helping pupils with trays and cutlery (but not serving food).
- Supervising pupils in the dining hall and play areas or in class if wet play.
- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
- Be aware of the school's policies on accidents, behaviour, play, health & safety, inclusion, code of conduct, employee handbook etc and to incorporate these into everyday practice.
- Be aware of and support diversity and ensure equal opportunities for all.
- Contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the school.
- Appreciate and support the role of other professionals.
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required.

- Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required.
- Undertake any other duties commensurate with the level of the post, as required to ensure the efficient and effective running of the school.
- Be familiar with safe use of outdoor equipment.

OTHER

- Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required.
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required.
- Take time to read notices, keep to deadlines and carry out your duties to the best of your ability.
- Undertake any other duties commensurate with the level of the post as required

SAFEGUARDING

All colleagues have the responsibility for promoting the safeguarding and welfare of children. All colleagues should be aware of the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy and work in accordance with this document at all times.

TRAINING

The Trust is committed to the development and progression of all staff. Staff are encouraged to attend training courses appropriate to their own and the school's needs. These include external courses, internal workshops and staff meetings. The successful candidate may be required to undertake training to fulfil the requirements of the post. The postholder will be expected to carry out such other duties as reasonably correspond to the general character of the post and are commensurate with its level of responsibility.

VARIATIONS

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time when it was drawn up. Such duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot of themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.

This job description may be reviewed annually in consultation with the Head Teacher.
